Project Description

Through a strategic, coordinated, and well-sequenced set of policy actions, the program will facilitate both immediate and critical medium-term reforms. Four reform areas identified under the program will focus on:

- strengthening planning and preparedness of the health sector, and ensuring the availability of critical medicines and emergency supplies;
- improving national pharmaceutical regulation, and increasing hospital autonomy and good governance;
- enhancing procurement in the health sector to increase efficiency, and establishing a single purchaser for health services; and
- safeguarding fiscal sustainability of the government over the medium term (3-5 years).

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main.
