Description	The Asian Development Review is ADB's professional research journal. This TA aims to enhance ADB DMCs policy formulation and decision making through the improved dissemination and usage of rigorous research on development issues in Asia and the Pacific.
Project Rationale and Linkage to Country/Regional Strategy	The TA shall finance the conduct of at least three development conferences, and the production and dissemination of at least 5 issues of the Asian Development Review in 2015 to 2017.
Impact	The Technical Assistance project's impact is enhanced policy formulation and policy decision-making in ADB's DMCs. It is aligned with the Midterm Review of Strategy 2020 which stresses the importance of knowledge-related work, and mandates that ADB provide knowledge solutions to its developing member countries.
