

India: Expanding Micro, Small, Medium-Sized Enterprise Lending Project

Project Name	Expanding Micro, Small, Medium-Sized Enterprise Lending Project
Project Number	52138-001
Borrower/Company	Fullerton India Credit Company Limited
Country	India
Location	Nation-wide
Approval Number
Type of ADB Assistance / Amount	Ordinary capital resources USD 150.00 million Approved
Strategic Agendas	Inclusive economic growth
Drivers of Change	Gender Equity and Mainstreaming Partnerships Private sector development
Sector / Subsector	Finance - Small and medium enterprise finance and leasing
Gender Equity and Mainstreaming	Effective gender mainstreaming
Responsible ADB Department	Private Sector Operations Department
Responsible ADB Division	Private Sector Financial Institutions Division
Responsible ADB Officer	Bracey, Pamela
Project Sponsor(s)
Description	Senior secured debt financing of up to $150 million (in Indian rupee equivalent) to Fullerton India Credit Company Limited (FICC) for the Expanding Micro, Small, and Medium-Sized Enterprise Lending Project in India
Objectives and Scope	The debt financing will support the growth of FICC's financing portfolio for MSMEs, providing needed financial products and services to this underserved segment.
Linkage to Country/Regional Strateg	infrastructure, institutions, and products and services. The transaction will contribute to financial sector development by supporting the growth of an NBFI which is important to providing increased access to finance for MSMEs in India. According to ADB''s country partnership
Linkage to Country/Regional Strateg
Safeguard Categories	growth of an NBFI which is important to providing increased access to finance for MSMEs in India. According to ADB''s country partnership strategy, 2018 -2022 for India, ADB's nonsovereign operations will continue to support the three country partnership strategy strategic priorities in a crosscutting manner by catalyzing financial sector development. The transaction will support the development of the MSME sector in India, particularly in rural areas, as part of one of the strategy's three key pillars on inclusive growth in rural areas and low-income states, which is also a high government priority. The transaction is aligned with ADB''s Gender Equality and Women''s Empowerment Operational Plan, 2013 -2020.
Safeguard Categories Environment	growth of an NBFI which is important to providing increased access to finance for MSMEs in India. According to ADB"s country partnership strategy, 2018 -2022 for India, ADB's nonsovereign operations will continue to support the three country partnership strategy strategic priorities in a crosscutting manner by catalyzing financial sector development. The transaction will support the development of the MSME sector in India, particularly in rural areas, as part of one of the strategy's three key pillars on inclusive growth in rural areas and low-income states, which is also a high government priority. The transaction is aligned with ADB"s Gender Equality and Women"s Empowerment Operational Plan, 2013 -2020.
Safeguard Categories Environment Involuntary Resettlement	growth of an NBFI which is important to providing increased access to finance for MSMEs in India. According to ADB''s country partnership strategy, 2018 -2022 for India, ADB's nonsovereign operations will continue to support the three country partnership strategy strategic priorities in a crosscutting manner by catalyzing financial sector development. The transaction will support the development of the MSME sector in India, particularly in rural areas, as part of one of the strategy's three key pillars on inclusive growth in rural areas and low-income states, which is also a high government priority. The transaction is aligned with ADB"s Gender Equality and Women"s Empowerment Operational Plan, 2013 -2020. FI FI FI-C
Safeguard Categories Environment	growth of an NBFI which is important to providing increased access to finance for MSMEs in India. According to ADB"s country partnership strategy, 2018 -2022 for India, ADB's nonsovereign operations will continue to support the three country partnership strategy strategic priorities in a crosscutting manner by catalyzing financial sector development. The transaction will support the development of the MSME sector in India, particularly in rural areas, as part of one of the strategy's three key pillars on inclusive growth in rural areas and low-income states, which is also a high government priority. The transaction is aligned with ADB"s Gender Equality and Women"s Empowerment Operational Plan, 2013 -2020.
Safeguard Categories Environment Involuntary Resettlement	growth of an NBFI which is important to providing increased access to finance for MSMEs in India. According to ADB"s country partnership strategy, 2018 -2022 for India, ADB's nonsovereign operations will continue to support the three country partnership strategy strategy criorities in a crosscutting manner by catalyzing financial sector development. The transaction will support the development of the MSME sector in India, particularly in rural areas, as part of one of the strategy's three key pillars on inclusive growth in rural areas and low-income states, which is also a high government priority. The transaction is aligned with ADB"s Gender Equality and Women"s Empowerment Operational Plan, 2013 -2020. FI FI-C FI-C
Safeguard Categories Environment Involuntary Resettlement Indigenous Peoples Summary of Environmental and Soc Environmental Aspects	growth of an NBFI which is important to providing increased access to finance for MSMEs in India. According to ADB"s country partnership strategy, 2018 -2022 for India, ADB's nonsovereign operations will continue to support the three country partnership strategy strategy control in a crosscutting manner by catalyzing financial sector development. The transaction will support the development of the MSME sector in India, particularly in rural areas, as part of one of the strategy's three key pillars on inclusive growth in rural areas and low-income states, which is also a high government priority. The transaction is aligned with ADB"s Gender Equality and Women"s Empowerment Operational Plan, 2013 -2020. FI FI-C FI-C
Safeguard Categories Environment Involuntary Resettlement Indigenous Peoples Summary of Environmental and Soc Environmental Aspects Involuntary Resettlement	growth of an NBFI which is important to providing increased access to finance for MSMEs in India. According to ADB"s country partnership strategy, 2018 -2022 for India, ADB's nonsovereign operations will continue to support the three country partnership strategy strategy catalyzing financial sector development. The transaction will support the development of the MSME sector in India, particularly in rural areas, as part of one of the strategy's three key pillars on inclusive growth in rural areas and low-income states, which is also a high government priority. The transaction is aligned with ADB"s Gender Equality and Women"s Empowerment Operational Plan, 2013 -2020. FI FI-C FI-C The transaction's potential environmental and social impacts, associated risks of FICC"s existing and/or likely future portfolio, and its commitment to and capacity for environmental and social management have been assessed. FICC will update its existing ESS policy to align and comply with the requirements of the ADB Safeguard Policy Statement (2009). In accordance with ADB requirements, FICC will ensure information disclosure and consultation with affected people, as applicable. Sub-borrowers are not expected to use loans from FICC to acquire land that will result in physical or economic displacement because of land
Safeguard Categories Environment Involuntary Resettlement Indigenous Peoples Summary of Environmental and Soc Environmental Aspects Involuntary Resettlement Indigenous Peoples	growth of an NBFI which is important to providing increased access to finance for MSMEs in India. According to ADB''s country partnership strategy, 2018 -2022 for India, ADB's nonsovereign operations will continue to support the three country partnership strategy strategic priorities in a crosscutting manner by catalyzing financial sector development. The transaction will support the development of the MSME sector in India, particularly in rural areas, as part of one of the strategy's three key pillars on inclusive growth in rural areas and low-income states, which is also a high government priority. The transaction is aligned with ADB"s Gender Equality and Women"s Empowerment Operational Plan, 2013 -2020. FI FI-C FI-C Tial Aspects The transaction's potential environmental and social impacts, associated risks of FICC''s existing and/or likely future portfolio, and its commitment to and capacity for environmental and social management have been assessed. FICC will update its existing ESS policy to align and comply with the requirements of the ADB Safeguard Policy Statement (2009). In accordance with ADB requirements, FICC will ensure information disclosure and consultation with affected people, as applicable. Sub-borrowers are not expected to use loans from FICC to acquire land that will result in physical or economic displacement because of land acquisition. The current and future portfolio of FICC is largely small ticket loans focused mainly on retail lending. It also provides loans for SMEs
Safeguard Categories Environment Involuntary Resettlement Indigenous Peoples Summary of Environmental and Soc Environmental Aspects Involuntary Resettlement Indigenous Peoples	growth of an NBFI which is important to providing increased access to finance for MSMEs in India. According to ADB's country partnership strategy, 2018 -2022 for India, ADB's nonsovereign operations will continue to support the three country partnership strategy priorities in a crosscutting manner by catalyzing financial sector development. The transaction will support the development of the MSME sector in India, particularly in rural areas, as part of one of the strategy's three key pillars on inclusive growth in rural areas and low-income states, which is also a high government priority. The transaction is aligned with ADB's Gender Equality and Women's Empowerment Operational Plan, 2013 -2020. FI FI-C FI-C The transaction's potential environmental and social impacts, associated risks of FICC's existing and/or likely future portfolio, and its commitment to and capacity for environmental and social management have been assessed. FICC will update its existing ESS policy to align and comply with the requirements of the ADB Safeguard Policy Statement (2009). In accordance with ADB requirements, FICC will ensure information disclosure and consultation with affected people, as applicable. Sub-borrowers are not expected to use loans from FICC to acquire land that will result in physical or economic displacement because of land acquisition. The current and future portfolio of FICC is largely small ticket loans focused mainly on retail lending. It also provides loans for SMEs where land rights are already acquired through direct purchase agreement.
Safeguard Categories Environment Involuntary Resettlement Indigenous Peoples Summary of Environmental and Soc Environmental Aspects Involuntary Resettlement Indigenous Peoples Stakeholder Communication,	growth of an NBFI which is important to providing increased access to finance for MSMEs in India. According to ADB''s country partnership strategy, 2018 -2022 for India, ADB's nonsovereign operations will continue to support the three country partnership strategy strategy priorities in a crosscutting manner by catalyzing financial sector development. The transaction will support the development of the MSME sector in India, particularly in rural areas, as part of one of the strategy's three key pillars on inclusive growth in rural areas and low-income states, which is also a high government priority. The transaction is aligned with ADB''s Gender Equality and Women''s Empowerment Operational Plan, 2013 -2020. FI FI-C FI-C FI-C The transaction's potential environmental and social impacts, associated risks of FICC''s existing and/or likely future portfolio, and its commitment to and capacity for environmental and social management have been assessed. FICC will update its existing ESS policy to align and comply with the requirements of the ADB Safeguard Policy Statement (2009). In accordance with ADB requirements, FICC will ensure information disclosure and consultation with affected people, as applicable. Sub-borrowers are not expected to use loans from FICC to acquire land that will result in physical or economic displacement because of land acquisition. The current and future portfolio of FICC is largely small ticket loans focused mainly on retail lending. It also provides loans for SMEs where land rights are already acquired through direct purchase agreement. FICC''s business activities are not likely to result in impacts on indigenous people communities. ADB financing will not be used to fund any activity which will result in adverse impacts on indigenous people.
Safeguard Categories Environment Involuntary Resettlement Indigenous Peoples Summary of Environmental and Soc Environmental Aspects Involuntary Resettlement Indigenous Peoples Stakeholder Communication, Participation, and Consultation Timetable for assistance design, pro	growth of an NBFI which is important to providing increased access to finance for MSMEs in India. According to ADB''s country partnership strategy, 2018 -2022 for India, ADB's nonsovereign operations will continue to support the three country partnership strategy strategy priorities in a crosscutting manner by catalyzing financial sector development. The transaction will support the development of the MSME sector in India, particularly in rural areas, as part of one of the strategy's three key pillars on inclusive growth in rural areas and low-income states, which is also a high government priority. The transaction is aligned with ADB''s Gender Equality and Women''s Empowerment Operational Plan, 2013 -2020. FI FI-C FI-C FI-C The transaction's potential environmental and social impacts, associated risks of FICC''s existing and/or likely future portfolio, and its commitment to and capacity for environmental and social management have been assessed. FICC will update its existing ESS policy to align and comply with the requirements of the ADB Safeguard Policy Statement (2009). In accordance with ADB requirements, FICC will ensure information disclosure and consultation with affected people, as applicable. Sub-borrowers are not expected to use loans from FICC to acquire land that will result in physical or economic displacement because of land acquisition. The current and future portfolio of FICC is largely small ticket loans focused mainly on retail lending. It also provides loans for SMEs where land rights are already acquired through direct purchase agreement. FICC''s business activities are not likely to result in impacts on indigenous people communities. ADB financing will not be used to fund any activity which will result in adverse impacts on indigenous people.
Safeguard Categories Environment Involuntary Resettlement Indigenous Peoples Summary of Environmental and Soc Environmental Aspects Involuntary Resettlement Indigenous Peoples Stakeholder Communication, Participation, and Consultation	growth of an NBFI which is important to providing increased access to finance for MSMEs in India. According to 'ADB''s country partnership strategy, 2018 -2022 for India, ADB's nonsovereign operations will continue to support the three country partnership strategy strategic priorities in a crosscutting manner by catalyzing financial sector development. The transaction will support the development of the MSME sector in India, particularly in rural areas, as part of one of the strategy's three key pillars on inclusive growth in rural areas and low-income states, which is also a high government priority. The transaction is aligned with ADB''s Gender Equality and Women''s Empowerment Operational Plan, 2013 -2020. FI FI-C FI-C The transaction's potential environmental and social impacts, associated risks of FICC''s existing and/or likely future portfolio, and its commitment to and capacity for environmental and social management have been assessed. FICC will update its existing ESS policy to align and comply with the requirements of the ADB Safeguard Policy Statement (2009). In accordance with ADB requirements, FICC will ensure information disclosure and consultation with affected people, as applicable. Sub-borrowers are not expected to use loans from FICC to acquire land that will result in physical or economic displacement because of land acquisition. The current and future portfolio of FICC is largely small ticket loans focused mainly on retail lending. It also provides loans for SMEs where land rights are already acquired through direct purchase agreement. FICC''s business activities are not likely to result in impacts on indigenous people communities. ADB financing will not be used to fund any activity which will result in adverse impacts on indigenous peoples.
Safeguard Categories Environment Involuntary Resettlement Indigenous Peoples Summary of Environmental and Soc Environmental Aspects Involuntary Resettlement Indigenous Peoples Stakeholder Communication, Participation, and Consultation Timetable for assistance design, pro Concept Clearance Due Diligence	growth of an NBFI which is important to providing increased access to finance for MSMEs in India. According to ADB"s country partnership strategy, 2018 - 2022 for India, ADB's knonsovereing operations will continue to support the three country partnership strategy strategic priorities in a crosscutting manner by catalyzing financial sector development. The transaction will support the development of the MSME sector in India, particularly in rural areas, as part of one of the strategy's three key pillars on inclusive growth in rural areas and low-income states, which is also a high government priority. The transaction is aligned with ADB"s Gender Equality and Women"s Empowerment Operational Plan, 2013 -2020. FI FI-C FI-C FI-C The transaction's potential environmental and social impacts, associated risks of FICC"s existing and/or likely future portfolio, and its commitment to and capacity for environmental and social management have been assessed. FICC will update its existing ESS policy to align and comply with the requirements of the ADB Safeguard Policy Statement (2009). In accordance with ADB requirements, FICC will ensure information disclosure and consultation with affected people, as applicable. Sub-borrowers are not expected to use loans from FICC to acquire land that will result in physical or economic displacement because of land acquisition. The current and future portfolio of FICC is largely small ticket loans focused mainly on retail lending. It also provides loans for SMEs where land rights are already acquired through direct purchase agreement. FICC's business activities are not likely to result in impacts on indigenous peoples. FICC ensures participation of different organizations through its CSR policy and corporate governance policy.
Safeguard Categories Environment Involuntary Resettlement Indigenous Peoples Summary of Environmental and Soc Environmental Aspects Involuntary Resettlement Indigenous Peoples Stakeholder Communication, Participation, and Consultation Timetable for assistance design, proc Concept Clearance	growth of an NBFI which is important to providing increased access to finance for MSMEs in India. According to ADB''s country partnership strategy, 2018 -2022 for India, ADB's nonsovereign operations will continue to support the three country partnership strategy strategic priorities in a crosscutting manner by catalyzing financial sector development. The transaction will support the development of the MSME sector in India, particularly in rural areas, as part of one of the strategy's three key pillars on inclusive growth in rural areas and low-income states, which is also a high government priority. The transaction is aligned with ADB''s Gender Equality and Women''s Empowerment Operational Plan, 2013 -2020. FI FI-C FI-C FI-C The transaction's potential environmental and social impacts, associated risks of FICC''s existing and/or likely future portfolio, and its commitment to and capacity for environmental and social management have been assessed. FICC will update its existing ESS policy to align and comply with the requirements of the ADB Safeguard Policy Statement (2009). In accordance with ADB requirements, FICC will ensure information disclosure and consultation with affected people, as applicable. Sub-borrowers are not expected to use loans from FICC to acquire land that will result in physical or economic displacement because of land acquisition. The current and future portfolio of FICC is largely small ticket loans focused mainly on retail lending. It also provides loans for SMEs where land rights are already acquired through direct purchase agreement. FICC''s business activities are not likely to result in impacts on indigenous people communities. ADB financing will not be used to fund any activity which will result in adverse impacts on indigenous peoples. FICC ensures participation of different organizations through its CSR policy and corporate governance policy.

Last PDS Update 11 Jul 2019

Project Page	https://www.adb.org/projects/52138-001/main
Request for Information	http://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form?subject=52138-001
Date Generated	16 July 2019

ADB provides the information contained in this project data sheet (PDS) solely as a resource for its users without any form of assurance. Whilst ADB tries to provide high quality content, the information are provided "as is" without warranty of any kind, either express or implied, including without limitation warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, and non-infringement. ADB specifically does not make any warranties or representations as to the accuracy or completeness of any such information.