Description	Gender inequality is a significant constraint to economic growth and poverty reduction. Realizing gender equality and the empowerment of women and girls will make a crucial contribution toward achieving the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). The proposed knowledge and support TA will help Mongolia realize its commitments made under SDG 5 (achieve gender equality and empower all women and girls). The proposed TA will build on previous ADB and the Government of Japan's support to ensure practical application of the policy documents on gender equality at national, sector and local levels, while further fostering sustainability.
Project Rationale and Linkage to Country/Regional Strategy	In line with ADB's Strategy 2030, ADB will (i) reinforce Mongolia's efforts to achieve gender equality through its support to enforce the gender equality legislation; and (ii) strengthen collaboration with civil society organizations throughout project implementation. The proposed TA will contribute towards one of the sustainable social development objectives set forth in Mongolia's Sustainable Development Vision 2030 to ensure gender equality. The project is consistent with ADB's country partnership strategy, 2017-2020 for Mongolia and is included in the country operations business plan 2019-2021.
Impact	Gender equality in political, legal, economic, social, cultural and family relations substantially promoted (National Program on Gender Equality 2017-2021). Sustainable social development objectives ensuring gender equality substantially achieved.
Outcome	CSOs' engagement in implementation of gender equality programs at national, sector, and local level strengthened
Outputs	Capacity of government and nongovernment organizations, and private sector to operationalize gender agenda improved CSOs' engagement in local gender equality subprograms launched. Gender-related knowledge products disseminated and public awareness raised
