Consulting Services	The proposed KSTA is expected to require individual consultants. Experienced experts will be recruited as lead consultants, with technical support from other consultants (including national). The requirements for different types of expertise and the length of engagement will vary according to the scope of work. Consultants will be engaged on a continuous or intermittent basis, as necessary. Areas of expertise will include those needed to conduct economic monitoring and undertake analysis for policy reforms which can be implemented by Pacific DMCS.
