India: Maharashtra Agribusiness Network Project

Project Number       532         Country       India         Project Status       Prop         Project Type / Modality of       Loar         Assistance       Tect         Source of Funding / Amount       Loar         Tai       Tect         Strategic Agendas       Envi         Drivers of Change       Gov         Sector / Subsector       Agri         Gender Equity and       Effer         Mainstreaming       Effer         Description       The rest         Project Rationale and Linkage to       Mah         Country/Regional Strategy       Mah         Outcome       Mah         Outputs       Cap         Sedographical Location       Mah         Country/Regional Strategy       Gap         Fina       Achi         Agri       Achi         Souther       Mah         Country/Regional Strategy       Mah         Country/Regional Strategy       Mah         Coutrome       Mah         Coutrome       Mah         Coutrome       Mah         Coutrome       Mah         Coutrome       Mah         Coutrome	nical Assistance nical Assistance n: Maharashtra Agribusiness Network Project inary capital resources Maharashtra Agribusiness Network Project hnical Assistance Special Fund ronmentally sustainable growth sive economic growth ernance and capacity development vledge solutions te sector development cuture, natural resources and rural development - A trade - Rural market infrastructure tive gender mainstreaming project targets to support FPOs by improving a netw ified in the pre-feasibility study. The project design boonents for public sector infrastructure development sibutor to the national gross domestic product accoo % per year between FY2013/14 and FY2018/19 drive ighest in the income and development inequality as aling. The average income per capita in the poorest is 24.2% and gets as high as 40% in poor districts, at ta 53% of the state's population depend on agricultu small landholdings. Increasing the income of margin eve average agriculture sector growth rate of 5 per	s of population and ranks third by geographical area. The state is also the leading unting for 14.4% in FY2017/18 and demonstrated rapid economic growth averaging en by industrial and service sector outputs. However, the state is also ranked among is economic development is concentrated around major cities and rural poverty is still it district is merely 25.6% of Mumbai, the district with the highest income. The poverty and 23 out of 36 districts have higher poverty rates than the national average of 18% are for their livelihood and subsistence. About 80% of the farmers are marginal farmer
Country India Project Status Prop Project Type / Modality of Assistance Tect Source of Funding / Amount Loa Assistance Tect Source of Funding / Amount Loa Orra Take Tect Strategic Agendas Envi Drivers of Change Gov Kno Privers of Change Gov Kno Privers of Change Effe Mainstreaming Effe Mainstreaming Description The com appe Project Rationale and Linkage to Country/Regional Strategy Mah Country/Regional Strategy Mah Country/Regional Strategy Mah Country/Regional Strategy Mah Country Regional Strategy Ab Mah Country Categories Cap Safeguard Categories Environment	nical Assistance n: Maharashtra Agribusiness Network Project inary capital resources Maharashtra Agribusiness Network Project inary capital resources Maharashtra Agribusiness Network Project hnical Assistance Special Fund commentally sustainable growth sive economic growth ernance and capacity development vledge solutions te sector development culture, natural resources and rural development - A trade - Rural market infrastructure tive gender mainstreaming project targets to support FPOs by improving a netw iffed in the pre-feasibility study. The project design boonents for public sector infrastructure development arashtra is the second largest state in India in terms ributor to the national gross domestic product accou arashtra is the second largest state in India in terms ributor to the national gross domestic in the pore- si s 24.2% and gets as high as 40% in poor districts, at it 53% of the state's population depend on agricultu small landholdings. Increasing the income of margin eve average agriculture sector growth rate of 5 per	Agricultural policy, institutional and capacity development - Agro-industry, marketing, work of post-harvest marketing and value chains focusing on the horticulture crops reflects the lessons learned from the previous projects and comprises separate at and private sector investment support. ADB will add value through an integrated upport, and infrastructure development. s of population and ranks third by geographical area. The state is also the leading unting for 14.4% in FY2017/18 and demonstrated rapid economic growth averaging en by industrial and service sector outputs. However, the state is also ranked among s economic development is concentrated around major cities and rural poverty is still t district is merely 25.6% of Mumbai, the district with the highest income. The poverty and 23 out of 36 districts have higher poverty rates than the national average of 18% ure for their livelihood and subsistence. About 80% of the farmers are marginal farmer
Project Status Prog Project Type / Modality of Loar Assistance Tech Source of Funding / Amount Loa Orr Tak Source of Funding / Amount Loa Orr TA Tech Strategic Agendas Envi Inclu Drivers of Change Gov Kno Privers of Change Gov Sector / Subsector Agri and Gender Equity and Effe Mainstreaming Description The iden com appi Project Rationale and Linkage to Country/Regional Strategy Mah Country/Regional Strategy Mah Country/Regional Strategy Mah Country Agri Abo with Impact Achi acce Dutcome Mah Dutputs Cap Fina Agri Geographical Location Mah Safeguard Categories	nical Assistance nical Assistance n: Maharashtra Agribusiness Network Project inary capital resources Maharashtra Agribusiness Network Project hnical Assistance Special Fund ronmentally sustainable growth sive economic growth ernance and capacity development vledge solutions te sector development cuture, natural resources and rural development - A trade - Rural market infrastructure tive gender mainstreaming project targets to support FPOs by improving a netw ified in the pre-feasibility study. The project design boonents for public sector infrastructure development sibutor to the national gross domestic product accoo % per year between FY2013/14 and FY2018/19 drive ighest in the income and development inequality as aling. The average income per capita in the poorest is 24.2% and gets as high as 40% in poor districts, at ta 53% of the state's population depend on agricultu small landholdings. Increasing the income of margin eve average agriculture sector growth rate of 5 per	Agricultural policy, institutional and capacity development - Agro-industry, marketing, work of post-harvest marketing and value chains focusing on the horticulture crops reflects the lessons learned from the previous projects and comprises separate at and private sector investment support. ADB will add value through an integrated upport, and infrastructure development. s of population and ranks third by geographical area. The state is also the leading unting for 14.4% in FY2017/18 and demonstrated rapid economic growth averaging en by industrial and service sector outputs. However, the state is also ranked among s economic development is concentrated around major cities and rural poverty is still t district is merely 25.6% of Mumbai, the district with the highest income. The poverty and 23 out of 36 districts have higher poverty rates than the national average of 18% ure for their livelihood and subsistence. About 80% of the farmers are marginal farmer
Project Type / Modality of Load Assistance Tech Source of Funding / Amount Load Ord Tech Source of Funding / Amount Load Ord Tak Tech Source of Funding / Amount Load Ord Tak Tech Strategic Agendas Environment Environment Source of Funding / Amount Prive Source of Change Gov Kno Prive Sector / Subsector Agrin Agring Description The iden com app Project Rationale and Linkage to Country/Regional Strategy Mahamatrea Abo with Impact Acchi acce Dutcome Mah Outputs Cap Fina Agri Geographical Location Mah Safeguard Categories Environment	nical Assistance  n: Maharashtra Agribusiness Network Project inary capital resources  Maharashtra Agribusiness Network Project hnical Assistance Special Fund  ronmentally sustainable growth sive economic growth ernance and capacity development vledge solutions te sector development culture, natural resources and rural development - A trade - Rural market infrastructure tive gender mainstreaming  project targets to support FPOs by improving a netw iffed in the pre-feasibility study. The project design ponents for public sector infrastructure development situtor to the national gross domestic product accoo % per year between FY2013/14 and FY2018/19 drive ighest in the income and development inequality as aling. The average income per capita in the poorest is 24.2% and gets as high as 40% in poor districts, at t33% of the state's population depend on agricultu small landholdings. Increasing the income of margin eve average agriculture sector growth rate of 5 per	Agricultural policy, institutional and capacity development - Agro-industry, marketing, work of post-harvest marketing and value chains focusing on the horticulture crops reflects the lessons learned from the previous projects and comprises separate at and private sector investment support. ADB will add value through an integrated upport, and infrastructure development. s of population and ranks third by geographical area. The state is also the leading unting for 14.4% in FY2017/18 and demonstrated rapid economic growth averaging en by industrial and service sector outputs. However, the state is also ranked among s economic development is concentrated around major cities and rural poverty is still t district is merely 25.6% of Mumbai, the district with the highest income. The poverty and 23 out of 36 districts have higher poverty rates than the national average of 18% are for their livelihood and subsistence. About 80% of the farmers are marginal farme
Assistance Tech Source of Funding / Amount Loa Ora TA: Tech Strategic Agendas Envi Inclu Drivers of Change Goo Sector / Subsector Agri and Gender Equity and Effe Mainstreaming Effe Mainstreaming Description The iden com appi Project Rationale and Linkage to Country/Regional Strategy Nather Country/Regional Strategy Nather Country/Regional Strategy Nather Abo with Impact Achi acce Dutcome Mah Outputs Cap Fina Agri Geographical Location Mah	nical Assistance  n: Maharashtra Agribusiness Network Project inary capital resources Maharashtra Agribusiness Network Project hnical Assistance Special Fund commentally sustainable growth sive economic growth ermance and capacity development vledge solutions tte sector development ettive gender mainstreaming  project targets to support FPOs by improving a netw ified in the pre-feasibility study. The project design ponents for public sector infrastructure development addressing capacity development, financial su arashtra is the second largest state in India in terms ributor to the national gross domestic product accou % per year between FY2013/14 and FY2018/19 drive ighest in the income and development inequality as aling. The average income per capita in the poorest is 24.2% and gets as high as 40% in poor districts, at 153% of the state's population depend on agricultu small landholdings. Increasing the income of margin eve average agriculture sector growth rate of 5 per	Agricultural policy, institutional and capacity development - Agro-industry, marketing, work of post-harvest marketing and value chains focusing on the horticulture crops reflects the lessons learned from the previous projects and comprises separate at and private sector investment support. ADB will add value through an integrated upport, and infrastructure development. s of population and ranks third by geographical area. The state is also the leading unting for 14.4% in FY2017/18 and demonstrated rapid economic growth averaging en by industrial and service sector outputs. However, the state is also ranked among s economic development is concentrated around major cities and rural poverty is still t district is merely 25.6% of Mumbai, the district with the highest income. The poverty and 23 out of 36 districts have higher poverty rates than the national average of 18% are for their livelihood and subsistence. About 80% of the farmers are marginal farme
Interpret and a second seco	inary capital resources Maharashtra Agribusiness Network Project hnical Assistance Special Fund conmentally sustainable growth sive economic growth ernance and capacity development vledge solutions te sector development culture, natural resources and rural development - A trade - Rural market infrastructure tive gender mainstreaming project targets to support FPOs by improving a netw iffed in the pre-feasibility study. The project design boonents for public sector infrastructure development arashtra is the second largest state in India in terms ributor to the national gross domestic product accou arashtra is the second largest state in India in terms ributor to the national gross domestic in the poorest is 24.2% and gets as high as 40% in poor districts, at 153% of the state's population depend on agricultu small landholdings. Increasing the income of margin eve average agriculture sector growth rate of 5 per	Agricultural policy, institutional and capacity development - Agro-industry, marketing, work of post-harvest marketing and value chains focusing on the horticulture crops reflects the lessons learned from the previous projects and comprises separate at and private sector investment support. ADB will add value through an integrated upport, and infrastructure development. s of population and ranks third by geographical area. The state is also the leading unting for 14.4% in FY2017/18 and demonstrated rapid economic growth averaging en by industrial and service sector outputs. However, the state is also ranked among s economic development is concentrated around major cities and rural poverty is still t district is merely 25.6% of Mumbai, the district with the highest income. The poverty and 23 out of 36 districts have higher poverty rates than the national average of 18% ure for their livelihood and subsistence. About 80% of the farmers are marginal farmer
TA:         Ter         Strategic Agendas       Envi         Drivers of Change       Gov         Drivers of Change       Gov         Sector / Subsector       Agri         Gender Equity and       Effe         Mainstreaming       Fine         Description       The         Country/Regional Strategy       Mah         Country/Regional Strategy       Mah         Country/Regional Strategy       Mah         Outcome       Mah         Outputs       Cap         Fina       Agri         Safeguard Categories       Environment	Maharashtra Agribusiness Network Project hnical Assistance Special Fund ronmentally sustainable growth sive economic growth ernance and capacity development vledge solutions te sector development tulture, natural resources and rural development - A trade - Rural market infrastructure tive gender mainstreaming project targets to support FPOs by improving a netw iffed in the pre-feasibility study. The project design ponents for public sector infrastructure development addressing capacity development, financial su arashtra is the second largest state in India in terms ributor to the national gross domestic product acco % per year between FY2013/14 and FY2018/19 driva ighest in the income and development inequality as aling. The average income per capita in the poorest is 24.2% and gets as high as 40% in poor districts, at t 53% of the state's population depend on agricultu small landholdings. Increasing the income of marging eve average agriculture sector growth rate of 5 per	Agricultural policy, institutional and capacity development - Agro-industry, marketing, work of post-harvest marketing and value chains focusing on the horticulture crops reflects the lessons learned from the previous projects and comprises separate at and private sector investment support. ADB will add value through an integrated upport, and infrastructure development. s of population and ranks third by geographical area. The state is also the leading unting for 14.4% in FY2017/18 and demonstrated rapid economic growth averaging en by industrial and service sector outputs. However, the state is also ranked among s economic development is concentrated around major cities and rural poverty is still t district is merely 25.6% of Mumbai, the district with the highest income. The poverty and 23 out of 36 districts have higher poverty rates than the national average of 18% are for their livelihood and subsistence. About 80% of the farmers are marginal farme
Term         Strategic Agendas       Envi Inclu         Drivers of Change       Gov Knoo         Sector / Subsector       Agri         Gender Equity and Mainstreaming       Effe         Description       The iden com         Project Rationale and Linkage to Country/Regional Strategy       Mah         Country/Regional Strategy       Mah         Outcome       Mah         Outputs       Cap Fina Agri         Geographical Location       Mah         Safeguard Categories       Environment	hnical Assistance Special Fund ronmentally sustainable growth sive economic growth ernance and capacity development vledge solutions ite sector development culture, natural resources and rural development - A trade - Rural market infrastructure tive gender mainstreaming project targets to support FPOs by improving a netw iffed in the pre-feasibility study. The project design ponents for public sector infrastructure development oach addressing capacity development, financial su arashtra is the second largest state in India in terms ributor to the national gross domestic product accou % per year between FY2013/14 and FY2018/19 drive ighest in the income and development inequality as aling. The average income per capita in the poorest is 24.2% and gets as high as 40% in poor districts, at t 53% of the state's population depend on agricultu small landholdings. Increasing the income of marging eve average agriculture sector growth rate of 5 per	Agricultural policy, institutional and capacity development - Agro-industry, marketing, work of post-harvest marketing and value chains focusing on the horticulture crops reflects the lessons learned from the previous projects and comprises separate tt and private sector investment support. ADB will add value through an integrated upport, and infrastructure development. s of population and ranks third by geographical area. The state is also the leading unting for 14.4% in FY2017/18 and demonstrated rapid economic growth averaging en by industrial and service sector outputs. However, the state is also ranked among is economic development is concentrated around major cities and rural poverty is still t district is merely 25.6% of Mumbai, the district with the highest income. The poverty and 23 out of 36 districts have higher poverty rates than the national average of 18% are for their livelihood and subsistence. About 80% of the farmers are marginal farmer
Strategic Agendas Envi Inclu Drivers of Change Gov Kno Priv. Sector / Subsector Agri and Gender Equity and Effe Mainstreaming Description The iden com app Project Rationale and Linkage to Country/Regional Strategy Con Country/Regional Strategy Con the project Rationale and Linkage to Country/Regional Strategy Con Country/Regional Strategy Mah Country/Regional Strategy Abov with Impact Achi acce Outcome Mah Outputs Cap Fina Agri Geographical Location Mah Safeguard Categories	ormentally sustainable growth sive economic growth ernance and capacity development vledge solutions te sector development ulture, natural resources and rural development - A trade - Rural market infrastructure tive gender mainstreaming project targets to support FPOs by improving a networt ified in the pre-feasibility study. The project design ponents for public sector infrastructure developmen oach addressing capacity development, financial su arashtra is the second largest state in India in terms ributor to the national gross domestic product accou % per year between FY2013/14 and FY2018/19 drive ighest in the income and development inequality as alling. The average income per capita in the poorest is 24.2% and gets as high as 40% in poor districts, at t53% of the state's population depend on agricultu small landholdings. Increasing the income of margin eve average agriculture sector growth rate of 5 per	Agricultural policy, institutional and capacity development - Agro-industry, marketing, work of post-harvest marketing and value chains focusing on the horticulture crops reflects the lessons learned from the previous projects and comprises separate tt and private sector investment support. ADB will add value through an integrated upport, and infrastructure development. s of population and ranks third by geographical area. The state is also the leading unting for 14.4% in FY2017/18 and demonstrated rapid economic growth averaging en by industrial and service sector outputs. However, the state is also ranked among is economic development is concentrated around major cities and rural poverty is still t district is merely 25.6% of Mumbai, the district with the highest income. The poverty and 23 out of 36 districts have higher poverty rates than the national average of 18% are for their livelihood and subsistence. About 80% of the farmers are marginal farmer
Inclu Drivers of Change Gov Kno Priv. Sector / Subsector Agri and Gender Equity and Mainstreaming Effe Mainstreaming Description The iden com appi Project Rationale and Linkage to Country/Regional Strategy Mah Country/Regional Strategy Interpret Abo with Impact Achi acce Outcome Mah Outputs Cap Fina Agri Geographical Location Mah Safeguard Categories	sive economic growth ernance and capacity development vledge solutions te sector development culture, natural resources and rural development - A trade - Rural market infrastructure tive gender mainstreaming project targets to support FPOs by improving a netw iffed in the pre-feasibility study. The project design bonents for public sector infrastructure developmen oach addressing capacity development, financial su arashtra is the second largest state in India in terms ributor to the national gross domestic product accou & per year between FY2013/14 and FY2018/19 driva ighest in the income and development in the poorest is 24.2% and gets as high as 40% in poor districts, a t 53% of the state's population depend on agricultu small landholdings. Increasing the income of margin eve average agriculture sector growth rate of 5 per	vork of post-harvest marketing and value chains focusing on the horticulture crops reflects the lessons learned from the previous projects and comprises separate t and private sector investment support. ADB will add value through an integrated upport, and infrastructure development. s of population and ranks third by geographical area. The state is also the leading unting for 14.4% in FY2017/18 and demonstrated rapid economic growth averaging en by industrial and service sector outputs. However, the state is also ranked among is economic development is concentrated around major cities and rural poverty is still t district is merely 25.6% of Mumbai, the district with the highest income. The poverty and 23 out of 36 districts have higher poverty rates than the national average of 18% are for their livelihood and subsistence. About 80% of the farmers are marginal farmer
Kno       Privi       Sector / Subsector     Agriand       Gender Equity and Mainstreaming     Efference       Description     The idem com appi       Project Rationale and Linkage to Country/Regional Strategy     Mah cont cont country/Regional Strategy       Impact     Achiacce       Outcome     Mah acce       Outputs     Cap Fina Agri       Geographical Location     Mah       Safeguard Categories	vledge solutions te sector development :ulture, natural resources and rural development - A trade - Rural market infrastructure tive gender mainstreaming project targets to support FPOs by improving a netw iffed in the pre-feasibility study. The project design bonents for public sector infrastructure developmen oach addressing capacity development, financial su arashtra is the second largest state in India in terms ributor to the national gross domestic product accou & per year between FY2013/14 and FY2018/19 driva ighest in the income and development inequality as aling. The average income per capita in the poorest is 24.2% and gets as high as 40% in poor districts, a t 53% of the state's population depend on agricultu small landholdings. Increasing the income of margin eve average agriculture sector growth rate of 5 per	vork of post-harvest marketing and value chains focusing on the horticulture crops reflects the lessons learned from the previous projects and comprises separate t and private sector investment support. ADB will add value through an integrated upport, and infrastructure development. s of population and ranks third by geographical area. The state is also the leading unting for 14.4% in FY2017/18 and demonstrated rapid economic growth averaging en by industrial and service sector outputs. However, the state is also ranked among is economic development is concentrated around major cities and rural poverty is still t district is merely 25.6% of Mumbai, the district with the highest income. The poverty and 23 out of 36 districts have higher poverty rates than the national average of 18% ure for their livelihood and subsistence. About 80% of the farmers are marginal farme
and         Gender Equity and Mainstreaming       Effer         Description       The iden com app         Project Rationale and Linkage to Country/Regional Strategy       Mah Country/Regional Strategy         Impact       Achi acce         Outcome       Mah Outputs         Cap Fina Agri         Safeguard Categories         Environment	trade - Rural market infrastructure tive gender mainstreaming project targets to support FPOs by improving a network ified in the pre-feasibility study. The project design ponents for public sector infrastructure developmen oach addressing capacity development, financial su arashtra is the second largest state in India in terms fibutor to the national gross domestic product accou % per year between FY2013/14 and FY2018/19 drive ighest in the income and development inequality as aliling. The average income per capita in the pooresis is 24.2% and gets as high as 40% in poor districts, a it 53% of the state's population depend on agricultu small landholdings. Increasing the income of margin eve average agriculture sector growth rate of 5 per	vork of post-harvest marketing and value chains focusing on the horticulture crops reflects the lessons learned from the previous projects and comprises separate t and private sector investment support. ADB will add value through an integrated upport, and infrastructure development. s of population and ranks third by geographical area. The state is also the leading unting for 14.4% in FY2017/18 and demonstrated rapid economic growth averaging en by industrial and service sector outputs. However, the state is also ranked among is economic development is concentrated around major cities and rural poverty is still t district is merely 25.6% of Mumbai, the district with the highest income. The poverty and 23 out of 36 districts have higher poverty rates than the national average of 18% ure for their livelihood and subsistence. About 80% of the farmers are marginal farme
Mainstreaming Description The idem com app Project Rationale and Linkage to Country/Regional Strategy Mah Country/Regional Strategy Impact Achi acce Outcome Mah Outputs Cap Fina Agri Geographical Location Mah Safeguard Categories Environment	project targets to support FPOs by improving a netwi- ified in the pre-feasibility study. The project design ponents for public sector infrastructure developmen oach addressing capacity development, financial su arashtra is the second largest state in India in terms ributor to the national gross domestic product accou- % per year between FY2013/14 and FY2018/19 drive ighest in the income and development inequality as aliling. The average income per capita in the pooresis is 24.2% and gets as high as 40% in poor districts, a it 53% of the state's population depend on agricultu small landholdings. Increasing the income of margin eve average agriculture sector growth rate of 5 per	reflects the lessons learned from the previous projects and comprises separate t and private sector investment support. ADB will add value through an integrated upport, and infrastructure development. s of population and ranks third by geographical area. The state is also the leading unting for 14.4% in FY2017/18 and demonstrated rapid economic growth averaging en by industrial and service sector outputs. However, the state is also ranked among is economic development is concentrated around major cities and rural poverty is still t district is merely 25.6% of Mumbai, the district with the highest income. The povert and 23 out of 36 districts have higher poverty rates than the national average of 18% ure for their livelihood and subsistence. About 80% of the farmers are marginal farme
iden com app Project Rationale and Linkage to Country/Regional Strategy Mah Country/Regional Strategy Mah Impact Achi acce Outcome Mah Outputs Cap Fina Agri Geographical Location Mah Safeguard Categories	ified in the pre-feasibility study. The project design ponents for public sector infrastructure developmen oach addressing capacity development, financial su arashtra is the second largest state in India in terms ributor to the national gross domestic product accou & per year between FY2013/14 and FY2018/19 drive lighest in the income and development inequality as ailing. The average income per capita in the pooresi is 24.2% and gets as high as 40% in poor districts, a it 53% of the state's population depend on agricultu small landholdings. Increasing the income of margin eve average agriculture sector growth rate of 5 per	reflects the lessons learned from the previous projects and comprises separate t and private sector investment support. ADB will add value through an integrated upport, and infrastructure development. s of population and ranks third by geographical area. The state is also the leading unting for 14.4% in FY2017/18 and demonstrated rapid economic growth averaging en by industrial and service sector outputs. However, the state is also ranked among is economic development is concentrated around major cities and rural poverty is still t district is merely 25.6% of Mumbai, the district with the highest income. The povert and 23 out of 36 districts have higher poverty rates than the national average of 18% ure for their livelihood and subsistence. About 80% of the farmers are marginal farme
Country/Regional Strategy cont 10.0 the preverate Abo with Impact Achi acce Outcome Mah Outputs Cap Fina Agri Geographical Location Mah Safeguard Categories Environment	ributor to the national gross domestic product accout % per year between FY2013/14 and FY2018/19 drivu highest in the income and development inequality as alling. The average income per capita in the poorest is 24.2% and gets as high as 40% in poor districts, a it 53% of the state's population depend on agricultu small landholdings. Increasing the income of margin eve average agriculture sector growth rate of 5 per	unting for 14.4% in FY2017/18 and demonstrated rapid economic growth averaging en by industrial and service sector outputs. However, the state is also ranked among s economic development is concentrated around major cities and rural poverty is still t district is merely 25.6% of Mumbai, the district with the highest income. The povert and 23 out of 36 districts have higher poverty rates than the national average of 18% ure for their livelihood and subsistence. About 80% of the farmers are marginal farme
acce Outcome Mah Outputs Cap Fina Agri Geographical Location Mah Safeguard Categories Environment		nal farmers impacts significantly on poverty reduction of rural Maharashtra.
Outputs Cap Fina Agri Geographical Location Mah Safeguard Categories Environment	ssible agriculture markets (Vision 2030)	cent, promote agriculture produce export, and establish fair, competitive and
Fina Agri Geographical Location Mah Safeguard Categories Environment	arashtra's horticultural production values and FPOs'	profit increased
Safeguard Categories	ncity enhanced for value chain integration of FPOs ncial support provided for FPOs and value chain ope culture value chain improved and operational for the
Environment	arashtra
		В
nvoluntary Resettlement		C
Indigenous Peoples		C
Summary of Environmental and Social A	spects
Environmental Aspects nvoluntary Resettlement
ndigenous Peoples
Stakeholder Communication, Participation	n, and Consultation
During Project Design
During Project Implementation
Business Opportunities
Consulting Services Procurement will b Borrowers (2017, a	e undertaken following the ADB Procurement Policy

Procurement Procurement will be undertaken following the ADB Procurement Policy (2017, as amended from time to time) and the Procurement Regulations for ADB Borrowers (2017, as amended from time to time).

Responsible ADB Officer	Masahiro Nishimura
Responsible ADB Department	South Asia Department
Responsible ADB Division	Environment, Natural Resources & Agriculture Division, SARD
Executing Agencies	Maharashtra Department of Cooperation, Marketing and Textile Mantralaya, Mumbai - 400 032, Maharashtra, India
Timetable
Concept Clearance	04 Dec 2019
Fact Finding	22 Jun 2020 to 30 Jun 2020
MRM	08 Jul 2020
Approval
Last Review Mission
Last PDS Update	09 Dec 2019

rm?subject=53264-001

ADB provides the information contained in this project data sheet (PDS) solely as a resource for its users without any form of assurance. Whilst ADB tries to provide high quality content, the information are provided "as is" without warranty of any kind, either express or implied, including without limitation warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, and non-infringement. ADB specifically does not make any warranties or representations as to the accuracy or completeness of any such information.