Description		The knowledge and support technical assistance (TA) will help the Asian Development Bank (ADB) developing member countries (DMCs) achieve universal health coverage (UHC) by supporting the development and adoption of digital national health insurance (NHI) information systems. The TA will support the implementation of ADB's Strategy 2030, particularly Operational Priority 1 to address remaining poverty and reduce inequalities and enhance human capital and social protection for all.
Project Rationale and Country/Regional Str		Driven by the need to support economic and human capital development, countries across Asia and the Pacific are strengthening national UHC strategies. Achieving UHC means that all people can access quality health services without incurring financial hardship, resulting in healthier populations. However, many DMCs face major challenges in making progress towards UHC.
Impact		Access to needed quality health services in selected DMCs improved (ADB Strategy 2030)
Outcome		Management of NHI in 2 selected DMCs improved
Outputs		NHI information systems of 5 selected DMCs assessed NHI information systems of 5 selected DMCs improved
		Capacity to implement and maintain the NHI information systems for UHC strengthened
