Description	The Health Services Sector Development Program (HSSDP) will help Papua New Guinea (PNG) strengthen health services through policy reforms and direct investments in health systems. A diagnostic assessment of the coverage, financing, and quality of health services is required to ensure that the interventions are designed for maximum impact.
Project Rationale and Linkage to Country/Regional Strategy	The HSSDP will contribute to the achievement of the National Health Plan (NHP) (2011-2020) and the Development Strategic Plan (2010-2030). In particular, the HSSDP aims to improve national public expenditure management and strengthen health systems. The HSSDP builds upon ADB's long-term in-country engagement in both the health sector and public finance management (PFM).
