Country chapters monitor the latest economic developments and provide a near-term outlook, which are essential in developing appropriate policy recommendations to ensure macroeconomic stability. The chapters policy challenge sections analyze key obstacles to inclusive economic growth, such as (i) factors preventing productive employment generation, (ii) human development constraints, (iii) gender and other socioeconomic and demographic barriers, (iv) spatial and geographical limitations, (v) institutional and policy weaknesses, and (vi) factors preventing expansion of social protection programs. The thematic chapters examine important development challenges for a transforming Asia and the Pacific. The capacity of many DMCs to respond to macroeconomic and development challenges is limited by knowledge gaps. The magnitude and nature of the recent shocks hitting these economies have made it extremely hard to track the current state and future trajectory of their economies, making policymaking more difficult. For many policymakers, the issues they face lack precedents that would help them formulat sound responses. Post-COVID, the challenges of ensuring green growth, adequate education, health, and social protection, and addressing inequality also require knowledge solutions. This underscores the need for up-to-date research and comprehensive analyses of macroeconomic issues and development challenges affecting the region such as the ADO. As indicated in ADB's Strategy 2030, ADB s relevance will increasingly depend on its role as a knowledge institution, including its ability to generate solid, policy-relevant research. ADB knowledge and research is pivotal in raising understanding and awareness about critical areas for action, supporting good policies and reform

Consulting Individual consultants and resource persons will be recruited through individual consultant selection or framework agreements wherein shortlisted consultants Services may be hired as needed for the duration of the agreement (as may be appropriate) to provide international and national consulting. The TA subproject will require international consultancy from economists and sector specialists who will prepare background papers and analyses supporting the thematic chapters or topics related to the outlook. International economic advisory and editing consultants will be required for the economic and technical editing of ADO manuscripts before final publication. National economics consultants and research assistants will be required to assist with data management and to conduct research on a particular topic. ADB will engage resource persons for a maximum of 33 working days to conduct training on macroeconomics and economic forecasting, serve as discussants during workshops, peer review papers, and serve as technical experts.

Procurement ERCD will procure ICT-related equipment and/or supplies, subscriptions to third-party databases, and statistical software under the TA as needed and in coordination with the Information Technology Department and Corporate Services Department. Procurement will follow the ADB Procurement Policy (2017, as amended from time to time)._Procurement Plan is accessible from the list of linked documents in Appendix 3. Disbursements under the TA will be made in accordance with ADB's Technical Assistance Disbursement Handbook (2020, as amended from time to time).
