D. Assessment and Conclusion

1. The Public Consultation was well attended as all the invited participants/sectors were present and actively participated in the workshop/discussion group.
2. The IPAC Project design, its coverage and components were understood by the participants. The women and the Indigenous Peoples are particularly interested in the possible projects under the Matching Grant Program. The IPs stressed their desire that the IP organizations be included in the project document and not just Farmers Organizations or FOs.
3. The IPs appreciated that they are consulted and informed of the IPAC Project's Environment and Social Safeguards Framework. The NCIP Region XI representative expressed her appreciation of the DAR's practice of involving/coordinating with them in DAR projects involving IPs. She however, expressed the need to provide the necessary budgetary support in the conduct of FPIC-related activities.
4. Overall, the purpose of the consultation was attained having informed the participants about the IPAC Project, the Environment and Social Management Framework, the methodology, procedures and guidelines involved in the screening for Environmental Impact Assessment, Land Acquisition Process, IP Engagement Documentation and Approval Process, Involuntary Resettlement, the Gender Development as embodied in the ESMF. The stakeholders were able to put forward their comments and recommendations on how to improve the ESMF design, implementing guidelines and mechanisms, institutional arrangements and requirements for sub-projects approval and funding under IPAC. The stakeholdersexpressed their support for the ESMF Framework and the IPAC Project.

5. The comments and suggestions generated in the small group discussions will be considered in the finalization of the ESMF, as noted in the suggestions in the above table.
6. Once the ESMF is finalized and approved, the said document will be posted in the DAR and WB web sites and hard copies will be provided to the concerned Local Government Units for posting and library reference.
