

Proposed Project Summary for Public Disclosure
(concept review stage)

Project Name	Gansu Regional Medical Centre Project
Country	The People’s Republic of China
Type	Sovereign
Area of Operation	Social Infrastructure
Concept Approval Date	July 2, 2024
Total Project Cost	RMB 5,154.2 million
Proposed Limit of NDB Financing	RMB 1,500 million
Borrower	The People’s Republic of China
Project Entity	The People’s Government of Gansu Province Gansu Provincial Cancer Hospital
Project Context	The Project aims to address several challenges in the healthcare sector of Gansu: (i) medical infrastructure and expertise in cancer diagnosis and treatment need improvement; (ii) rehabilitation services need to be strengthened and use of Chinese traditional medicine in cancer prevention promoted; and (iii) cancer-related research and innovation development requires support. To address the above challenges, the Gansu Provincial Government has proposed to develop a new campus of the Gansu Cancer Hospital (“Project”) in collaboration with Sun Yat-sen University Cancer Centre, one of the top ranked hospitals for cancer treatment in China.
Project Description	The facility to be built under the Project will meet the Grade A tertiary hospital standard. The Project includes: (i) expanded medical service capacity of the Gansu Cancer Hospital with an additional floor area of 210,663 m², 1,300 beds and necessary equipment; and (ii) a proton radiotherapy centre with four proton rotation therapy chambers, an R&D centre, a medical science clinical centre for integrated traditional Chinese and western medicine, including an academic conference centre, with a combined floor area of 180,890 m² and 500 beds.
Project Objective	The Project aims to increase accessibility to high quality cancer detection, diagnosis and treatment services in Gansu, improve the quality of medical services and strengthen the healthcare sector’s institutional capacity in Gansu by teaching medical professionals and carrying out R&D.