Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the proposed technical assistance (TA) will fund phase 1 of a multi-year project that will update, redraft, simplify and modularize more than 350 existing agreements covering two Trade and Supply Chain Finance Program (TSCFP) products that account for 60% of the Program's total value of transactions.

The Trade and Supply Chain Finance Program (TSCFP) is a core and ongoing business line of the Asian Development Bank (ADB) operating under the approval of the ADB Board of Directors since 2003, with an exposure limit of $2.45 billion from ADB's ordinary capital resources. The TSCFP provides financing in support of trade into and out of ADB developing member countries (DMCs) and supply chains involving DMCs.

Investment Description

- Asian Development Bank (ADB)

The TA will be financed on a grant basis by ADB's Technical Assistance Special Fund (TASF-other sources).

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
