Project Description

According to ADB website, A small-scale project preparatory technical assistance (S-PPTA) will help develop project design for the ensuing financial intermediary loan to the Republic of Uzbekistan for the Small Business Finance Project. The project will:

1. Provide participating financial institutions (PFIs), i.e., commercial banks and leasing companies, with longer term funds for onlending to rural and women's small businesses
2. Provide capacity building technical assistance to PFIs to improve their risk management and increase the number of loan products they offer
3. Provide training to small businesses to improve their capacity to borrow. In addition, the project will provide assistance to the government to improve the enabling environment for small business development and access to finance.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>
