Project Description

According to the bank's website, "The Vanuatu Interisland Shipping Support Project (VISSP) was approved as Loan 2820/Grant 0273-VAN on 30-Nov-11. The project is co-financed by the Government of New Zealand. The safeguards categorizations of the original project are B for environment and C for involuntary resettlement and indigenous people. The project has been under implementation since 2012 and regular review missions have been conducted and semi-annual monitoring reports have been regularly received and disclosed.

Component 1 of VISSP - construction and rehabilitation of domestic wharves and jetties in Vanuatu - originally comprised seven subprojects (Figure 1) including:

a. South Paray domestic wharf and channel construction

b. Simonsen wharf rehabilitation

c. Lenakel wharf rehabilitation

d. Litzlitz wharf rehabilitation

e. Lolowai jetty construction

f. Loltong jetty construction

g. Port Sandwich jetty construction"

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main.
