Project Description

According to the bank website, "the proposed TA is designed to support (i) the identification, evaluation and preparation of potential new PFIs and MFIs to be accredited under the MFP; (ii) monitoring of portfolio; (iii) identification, evaluation, structuring and preparation of capital market instruments and other guarantee/risk participation products to be guaranteed under the MFP; (iv) capacity building for PFIs and MFIs, as needed; and (v) disseminating sector information and other knowledge products to a broader audience."

Early Warning System Project Analysis

According to the ADB, the project is classified as financial intermediary and will be treated as category C for environment, involuntary resettlement, and indigenous people under ADB's Safeguard Policy Statement (2009). Given the nature of microfinance operations, environmental impacts are expected to be negligible and no involuntary resettlement or impact on indigenous peoples are foreseen.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>
