Project Description

According to ADB website, the transaction technical assistance (TA) will (i) assess capacity, needs, and opportunities for micro, small and medium enterprises (MSMEs) to access finance; (ii) organize and conduct gender-responsive capacity building workshops and trainings; (iii) provide equipment to develop and expand business opportunities for MSMEs.

Further, the TA will not result to a change in the design and monitoring framework of the ongoing multitranche financing facility (MFF) for the Ulaanbaatar Urban Services and Ger Areas Development Investment Program and its tranches. The TA will enhance the quality of outputs without any change to the targeted results indicators. In particular, it will facilitate the delivery of outputs 2 and 4 under the MFF program.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main.
