Account Closing Date Original: 28 Feb 2015 Actual: 30 April 2016

According to bank documents, the capacity development technical assistance (TA) was intended to assist the government in: (i) identifying the existing constraints to meeting its AEC commitments, particularly in infrastructure; (ii) developing a strategy and plan to address those constraints; (iii) assisting in prioritizing RPJMN (Medium Term Development Plan) investments; and (iv) providing some support to assessing the impact and benefits of Indonesia's policy on trade and services under the AEC. The Indonesian Ministry for National Development Planning (BAPPENAS) was the executing and implementing agency.

The expected impact is that the ability of Indonesia to implement MPAC is improved. The expected outcome is Indonesia regional integration under ASEAN is enhanced. The TA outputs are: (1) approaches for implementing MPAC commitments under its three pillars are finalized; and (2) approaches for delivering international connectivity programs are aligned with RPJMN 2015–2019.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main
