Project Description

According to bank documents, the Urban Services Improvement Sector Project is expected to contribute to the enhanced health of Dili's population by improving sustained access to safe, 24-hour drinking water supply and improved management of municipal solid waste. Timor-Leste's urban population is growing rapidly. Dili, the capital city and main commercial center, has a population of around 227,000. The city is growing at an annual average rate of 4.2%, well above the national population growth rate of 2.4%.

This project was removed in the bank's project database.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>
