Project Description

According to ADB documents, the TA aims to improve efficiency in public service procurement, provision, and financing. This TA will further examine the potential of private sector engagement in public service provision and will provide a detailed design of property taxation. The TA will be built on lessons from previous support, and will analyze the efficiency of the dibao system with particular attention paid to a means test, eligibility, a minimum guarantee level, fiscal sustainability, and an exit policy.

The impact will be improved efficiency in public service procurement, financing, and delivery. The outcome will be improved policy and institutional frameworks for efficient public service procurement, delivery, and financing.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main
