Project Description

The Shanxi Provincial Government requested the Asian Development Bank to help eradicate extreme poverty and improve livelihood in the poverty-stricken areas of the province by capitalizing on the potential of agriculture sector in developing rural income-generating opportunities. The ADB will provide technical assistance support for inclusive business approach to select the project agribusiness companies (PACs) and cooperatives; and for value chain analysis to design project investment to strengthen the PACs and cooperatives chains, and their supply chains; and promote mutually beneficial cooperation between the PACs and farmers. This will be the first ADB project for the People's Republic of China to adopt value chain analysis to design a project and the first sovereign project to adopt the IB approach.

The PPTA will (i) assess the project’s technical, economic, and financial feasibility; (ii) assess safeguards requirements; (iii) conduct social survey and consultations for poverty, social, and gender analyses; (iv) prepare project documents according to ADB’s requirements; (v) assist the SPG in revising domestic feasibility studies and improving safeguard documents in line with ADB’s and the government’s requirements; and (vi) conduct training and capacity development.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main
