Project Description

The programmatic approach seeks to increase the availability and efficiency of public services in Cambodia, including services for poor and vulnerable groups, by strengthening public expenditure and revenue management. In support of stage 3 of the government's four-stage Public Financial Management Reform Program (PFMRP), the proposed program will finance actions and initiatives to strengthen (i) the policy and regulatory framework for expenditure and revenue management, (ii) the procedures and capacities of select line ministries to implement budgeting and expenditure management reforms, and (iii) the capacity of the external audit function.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main
