Project Description

According to the Bank’s website, the program's programmatic approach supports the Government of Indonesia's energy sector reform priorities and represents a sustained partnership between ADB, the government, and other development partners. Subprogram 3 supports the transformation of Indonesia's energy sector through reforms initiated in 2014, which aim to (i) improve fiscal sustainability and governance, (ii) expand private investment, and (iii) promote the deployment of clean and efficient energy options. Subprogram 3 supports the government's ambitious energy sector reforms under the National Medium-Term Development Plan (RPJMN) 20202024 and its greenhouse gas (GHG) emission reductions of 29% under its nationally determined contribution.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main.
