Project Description

This project finances the production of knowledge products consisting of (i) one background paper on regionalism in Asia and the Pacific; (ii) a thematic paper on economic clusters and economic corridor development; (iii) a research report that consolidates the key findings and recommendations of the two knowledge products; and (iii) a synthesis paper summarizing the implications for ADB's operations in regional cooperation and integration.

Investment Description

- Asian Development Bank (ADB)

This project is funded by ADB's Technical Assistance Special Fund which will be implemented over a period of 18 months, from July 2015 to December 2016, in close collaboration with ADB's regional departments, Private Sector Operations Department (PSOD) and Sustainable Development and Climate Change (SDCC). ADB will also coordinate with other global and regional institutions, e.g. the GIZ, United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (UNESCAP), World Bank, World Customs Organization and World Trade Organization.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main
