Project Description

This project funds the construction and expansion of garment factories in Bangladesh. Additionally, the project will fund improvements of existing factories to meet certain structural, fire, and electrical safety standards.

Early Warning System Project Analysis

The ADB classified the project as risk category 'FI'.

Investment Description

- Asian Development Bank (ADB)

BRAC Bank will act as a financial intermediary, distributing ADB's funds.

Financial Intermediary

Financial Intermediary: A commercial bank or financial institution that receives funds from a development bank. A financial intermediary then lends these funds to their clients (private actors) in the form of loans, bonds, guarantees and equity shares. Financial intermediaries include insurance, pension and equity funds. The direct financial relationship is between the development bank and the financial intermediary.

- BRAC Bank Limited (Financial Intermediary) is owned by BRAC (Parent Company)

Private Actors Description

As stated on the company's website, BRAC Bank PLC began with the vision to provide banking solutions to the 'unbanked' Small and Medium Entrepreneurs. Taking inspiration from its parent organization BRAC, the largest NGO in the world, BRAC Bank introduced small ticket loans to the small and medium enterprises (SME), to specifically bring the grassroots entrepreneurs under the umbrella of formal banking service. Close to half of the bank's lending portfolio is comprised of small and medium enterprises – popularly known as the 'SME'.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>
