Project Description

According to ADB website, the TA aims to improve the performance of all ongoing and future loan and grant projects in the Pacific.

The TA is consistent with the ADB Pacific Approach 2010-2014 and the Interim Pacific Approach, 2015, and will support the monitoring of key portfolio performance indicators. The TA builds on the 10-point action plan for procurement reform to improve procurement performance by reducing procurement time, increasing administrative efficiency, and improving project delivery while maintaining sound fiduciary oversight. The TA will also contribute to implementation of the ADB plan for enhancing its effectiveness in fragile and conflict-affected situations, which focuses on supporting state-building and long term institutional capacity development in fragile countries.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main
