Project Description

According to ADB website, The proposed ARHP will support a portion of the Government of Uzbekistan's State Affordable Rural Housing Program (SARHP), which aims to improve the quality of life in rural areas of Uzbekistan through rural housing construction, employment generation, and private sector development. The ARHP will focus on rural housing financing and on leveraging institutional improvements in the associated sectors. Under the ARHP, three state-owned banks will provide loans to construct at least 29,000 dwelling units in nine regions of the country. The construction will be undertaken by private contractors and supervised by (i) a state-owned engineering company, Qishloq Qurilish Invest (QQI), (ii) the State Design Institute, Qishloq Qurilish Loyiha, and (iii) the State Committee for Architecture and Construction.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main
