Project Description

According to ADB website, IPEQ's impact is to improve the provision of infrastructure and service delivery to lift living standards and reduce poverty. The program's outcome is enhanced public financial management systems.

Subprograms 1 and 2 are envisioned as single-tranche policy-based loans. The inclusion of a third subprogram will be discussed with the authorities during program implementation. The loan amounts reflect the country's development financing needs and indicative costs of reform. The government has requested loans of $200 million for subprogram 1 and $200 million for subprogram 2 using a combination of Asian Development Fund and ordinary capital resources financing.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main
