Project Description

According to the bank document, the program aims to improve the quality of government budget on health, education, social protection and infrastructure, and is consistent with the government's reform priorities to:

(i) align the medium-term expenditure with the National Medium Term Development Plan 2015 2019 (RPJMN 2015 2019) and the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs);

(ii) enhance the national public expenditure system; and

(iii) improve fiscal transfers and spending for better service delivery at the subnational government level.

The proposed subprogram is aligned with the operational priorities in ADB Strategy 2030 to:

(i) address poverty and reduce inequality,

(ii) strengthen governance and institutional capacity and

(iii) accelerate progress on gender equality.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main
