Project Description

According to the bank website, the proposed TA is designed to strengthen the capacity of DMC officials/technical staff to carry out economic analysis to support their investment design and selection. The Cluster KSTA will include two subprojects and the main outputs include: (1) conduct of economic analysis training workshops for investment projects; (ii) conduct of economic analysis training workshop for Policy Reforms and (iii) support preparation of methodological notes or guidebooks on selected economic analysis methodologies. The outputs of the TA aim to promote allocative efficiency, equity considerations and project sustainability of programs and projects being implemented by DMCs. It will also complement the Guidelines on Economic Analysis of Investment Projects 2017.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>
