Project Description

According to ADB website, the Government of the People's Republic of China has requested support to improve the response to the needs of vulnerable children through support from social workers in the provision of services to vulnerable children. The proposed knowledge and support technical assistance (TA) will support the Ministry of Civil Affairs (MOCA) to develop policy recommendations which will strengthen social work services for vulnerable children through (i) research on international experience, (ii) development of guidelines for service standards, and (iii) training requirements for social workers. This will help improve the social protection system for vulnerable children and ensure that their needs are better met.

According to ADB documents, the project has a risk category of low and safeguard categorization does not apply.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>
