The Country Partnership Strategy 2016 2019, emphasizes better economic governance as one of the three key priority areas to support Indonesia to achieve higher, more inclusive and environmentally sustainable growth. ADB commits to provide support improvements in public sector service delivery including through strengthening transparency and accountability. Indonesia's National Medium Term Development Plan 2015-2019 (RPJMN) identifies ineffective and inefficient bureaucracy as a critical development constraint diminishing the country's competitiveness.

The proposed technical assistance has been requested by the government and builds on ADB's current assistance in improving systems for the preparation of projects and programs identified in the RPJMN. This is a key performance indicator for BAPPENAS. This SSTA links to existing support through strengthening the BAPPENAS performance indicators.
