Project Description

According to ADB website, DMC governments and EAs expressed concern on high turnover of the government officials dealing with ADB loan accountings and requested training for loan accounting and billing procedure. Borrowers/EAs also expressed limited or outdated knowledge on ADB's loan terms, features and accounting and servicing practices, which result in improper accounting records for ADB loans. The TA will have 15-17 workshops for an estimated 450-500 participants. Target participants will be finance and accounting staff of borrowers/EAs, mainly from ministry of finance, central bank, other related central government offices and EAs of new ADB projects.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>
