Project Description

The project description was not disclose at the time of writing. According to the bank website, "the subproject 1 will help the Cook Islands, Tonga, and other interested Pacific DMCs to carry out a comprehensive assessment of current ICT use in government operations and a road map to promote e-government. It will include current and future state analysis, infrastructure, hardware and software recommendation, organization structure, human resource requirement, and legal and regulatory gap analysis. Subproject 1 involves recommending a set of services to be pilot tested to demonstrate e-government capabilities. It will involve the recruitment of an international ICT architect, a sector specialist, and legal consultants, preferably through a firm, to deliver the feasibility report. The project team will work closely with ADB and government counterparts to execute day-to-day tasks."

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main
