Project Description

According to bank documents, the knowledge and support technical assistance (TA) attempts to facilitate and integrate the development of strategic knowledge on infrastructure in the region, both inside and outside the Asian Development Bank (ADB). The TA will focus on three important areas: (i) creating knowledge products that focus on strategic issues regarding infrastructure and its financing modality; (ii) integrating infrastructure knowledge products in the region through a publication entitled Asia Infrastructure Insights, and convening of regular consultation workshops and knowledge-dissemination events; and (iii) contributing to the development of methods for compiling data on infrastructure investments and their financing, and enhancing the availability of data required for policy analysis on infrastructure.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main
