Project Description

According to ADB website, the TA will strengthen the capacity and networks of university-level educators and institutions to improve the teaching and application of environment and climate change laws in ADB's developing member countries (DMCs), leading to more effective implementation, compliance and enforcement of national laws and better implementation of international commitments such as the Paris Agreement and Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). The TA will: (i) improve the quality of teaching of environmental laws and emerging climate change laws through train-the-trainers (TTT) programs; (ii) expand national, subregional and regional networks; and (iii) enhance knowledge platform to increase national and regional expertise.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main
