Project Description

According to the bank document, the technical assistance (TA) project will support the expansion of Indonesia's conditional cash transfer (CCT) program, the Family Hope Program (PKH). The program seeks to pay benefits to mothers and aims to reduce poverty and inequality through increased access to, and consumption of basic services.

The TA will:

- Build PKH staff capacity to implement PKH and its family development sessions (FDSs);
- Increase inclusiveness by supporting the PKH expansion to remote areas and vulnerable groups (elderly and people with disabilities); and
- Strengthen the PKH staff's analytical, communications, and advocacy skills to bolster stakeholder support.

The TA directly supports the Asian Development Bank's (ADB) Strategy 2030 through the operational priority of ensuring social protection for those in need. It is closely aligned with the country partnership strategy, 2016 2019, and included in the country operations business plan, 2018 2020 of the ADB for Indonesia.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>
