Project Description

According to the Bank’s website, the knowledge and support technical assistance (TA) is a follow-up to the successfully implemented TA for an Asia Pacific Public Electronic Procurement Network and to phase 1 of the TA for Strengthening the Asia Pacific Public Electronic Procurement Network. This TA will further support cooperation between the developing member countries (DMCs) of the Asian Development Bank (ADB) and with other regional procurement networks, including the Inter-American Network on Government Procurement. It will continue to support the implementation of electronic government procurement (e-GP), including assessments of e-GP systems, security audits, procurement, contract management, use of artificial intelligence, and machine learning.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main.
