Project Description

According to the bank document, the transaction technical assistance facility (the F-TRTA) is to enhance the EAs and IAs' capacity in the PRC for better project implementation, through targeted, practical, and systematic training and knowledge sharing activities.

The outputs will mainly include:

- (i) tailor-made training courses on procurement, financial management, safeguards, disbursement, contract management, and project performance evaluation,
- (ii) conducting systematic training to the EAs/IAs staff based on their roles in project implementation and the implementation stage of their projects;
- (iii) carrying out knowledge sharing activities to share experiences in various areas of project management among EAs/IAs in the PRC.

This F-TRTA is listed in the country operations business plan (COBP), 2018-2020, for the Peoples Republic of China (PRC).

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>
