Project Description

According to bank website, the project aims to "strengthen the institutional capacity of Department of Economic Affairs, Ministry of Finance (DEA) by augmenting its efficiency in preparing and implementing developmentally critical and feasible projects. The TA will enhance DEA's capacity and system by enhancing the already existing information technology (IT)-based project management system, and providing hands-on assistance to enable real-time monitoring of projects over the entire cycle. The support will improve project readiness by promptly identifying delays and undertaking corrective measures to address bottlenecks and reduce the entailed financial costs (such as commitment charges)."

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main
