Project Description

According to bank documents, "the government has requested support from the Asian Development Bank (ADB) to plan investments and design service delivery models for selected cities in Punjab province: Bahawalpur, Dera Ghazi Khan, Multan, Muzaffargarh, Rahim Yar Khan, Rawalpindi, and Sargodha.

The project readiness financing (PRF) will complement ADB's assistance to the urban development in Pakistan, including a transaction technical assistance facility designed to support feasibility studies and explore innovations to improve the quality of urban services

The PRF will finance:

- 1) the preparation of comprehensive spatial master plans for upstream project pipeline development,
- 2) the preparation of detailed engineering designs (DEDs),
- 3) the support procurement readiness
- 4) prepare operational business plans for priority investments of the ensuing projects."

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies
