Project Description

According to bank documents, "...A new program has been proposed to address the quality of basic and secondary education and strengthen learning outcomes from school education both at the central and state levels....The proposed transaction technical assistance (TA) facility would bridge capability gaps, apply best practices, and foster emerging innovative solutions for common challenges in the sector. Capacity building support will be provided through the provision of incremental consulting services to enhance project preparatory and implementation capacity.

The TA facility will provide project preparation, capacity building, undertaking due diligence, and increasing readiness for pipeline projects, including those identified in COBP for India, 2020-2022. It will initially support:

(i) Supporting School Education Program in India (tentative title)

(ii) Kerala Skills Development Project (tentative title)

(iii) Supporting State-Level Skills Development Project (for Assam)"

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main
