Project Description

According to the bank document, the proposed project will support the Ministry of Health in Lao People's Democratic Republic (Lao PDR) to improve the health system and its capacity of delivering high-quality health care services.

Improving the quality of health care is a top challenge for further progress towards universal health coverage. Thus, the project will deliver four outputs:

- (i) governance mechanism for quality assurance and continuous quality improvement enhanced;
- (ii) health human resources strengthened for delivery of quality health services;
- (iii) quality and management of health facilities boosted; and
- (iv) project management and monitoring supported

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>
