Project Description

According to the bank website, "The Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Affairs (MARA) is seeking support from ADB to demonstrate how the agriculture sector in the Yellow River basin can be transformed into one which is based on: (i) stronger and more capable institutions that can support sustainable sector development; (ii) sustainable and resilient production bases that balance producing food and agricultural products with environmental protection and rehabilitation and climate adaptation and mitigation; and (iii) vital rural agribusiness that adds value to basic commodities through value chain development and market connectivity. The proposed project will capture and share knowledge and lessons from project initiatives to serve as an example within the PRC and to other developing member countries."

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main.
