Project Description

According to the bank website, "The knowledge and support technical assistance (TA) will undertake research to evaluate the economic and social welfare impacts of social assistance policies in the People's Republic of China (PRC) and propose reform directions and policy options. Through empirical and theoretical studies and international comparison, the TA will recommend optimal social assistance expenditure and benefit levels and develop policy tools to improve the social assistance system. The TA will produce knowledge products and build capacity among social protection policymakers."

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main.
