Project Description

According to the website, The Government of the People's Republic of China (PRC), with the National Development and Reform Commission, Qinghai Provincial Government, and Guangdong Provincial Government, has requested a knowledge and support technical assistance (TA) from the Asian Development Bank (ADB) to develop policy and capacity, technical guidance, and design of pilots to further advance and enable mainstreaming of green circular economy, zero waste cities in the PRC. The TA will have four outputs related to (i) advanced upstream circular production; (ii) downstream improved waste management and resource recovery; (iii) midstream improved packaging and logistics addressing growing waste from e-commerce; and (iv) build institutional capacity and linking upstream, midstream, and downstream into a circular system.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
