Project Description

According to ADB website information, Ministry of Economic Development and Poverty Reduction (MOEDPR) requested technical support from ADB in May 2020 along strategic lines for preparing the country's socio-economic impact assessment from the COVID-19 pandemic. The requested financial support would be provided for the technical assistance (TA) in order to contribute to improved evidence-based decision-making by the Ministry of Economic Development and Poverty Reduction (MOEDPR) in the Republic of Uzbekistan in its response to the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

IMPACT & OUTCOME

Economic management capacity of MOEDPR staff has been strengthened.

Improved evidence-based decision-making by the MOEDPR in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, and increased institutional capacity in economic management.

Contact Information

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
