Support for Development of a Coordination Mechanism for Community and Home-Based Elderly Care and Health Care Services in Xiangyang

Project Description

According to the bank website, The knowledge and support technical assistance (TA) will help develop a model for an effective coordination mechanism between elderly care and health care services, focusing on community and home levels, in Xiangyang Municipality, Hubei Province, the People's Republic of China (PRC). The model will draw upon an analysis of available resources on linkages between elderly care and health care services, institutional arrangements for effective coordination, international experiences, and capacity building requirements.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main.
