Project Description

According to the bank's website, "the Boosting Productivity through Human Capital Development Program focuses on economic growth through labor productivity. The program covers various aspects of human capital development, including education, skills development, health, and social assistance all wrapped within the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) framework. The program is consistent with (i) the government's National Medium-Term Development Plan (RPJMN), 2020-2024 directives on human resources development and (ii) the first strategic pathway of ADB's country partnership strategy for Indonesia, 2020-2024".

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main.
