Project Description

According to the bank's website, "this program provides a platform for the Asian Development Bank (ADB) to support the government to achieve sustainable and inclusive growth and to reduce poverty and inequality through the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). The program (i) strengthens policies to finance and monitor the SDGs, (ii) improves educational attainment and skills development, and (iii) enhances social protection and public health systems. Subprogram 1 established the foundation of the program through regulatory reforms and pilot initiatives. Subprogram 2 concentrated on the implementation and expansion of reforms established under subprogram 1. Subprogram 3 focuses on institutionalizing those reforms, ensuring that they form a durable part of the national development framework".

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
