Project Description

According to the bank's website, "The Supporting Sustainable Economic Recovery Program will help the Cook Islands restore fiscally sustainable growth led by the private sector, which has been adversely affected by the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic. The program aims to (i) improve fiscal management and sustainability and (ii) strengthen the enabling environment for the private sector. It aligns with Asian Development Bank (ADB) Strategy 2030 operational priorities of strengthening governance and institutional capacity, accelerating progress in gender equality, and fostering regional cooperation and integration. It is consistent with the country operations business plan for Eleven small Pacific island countries, 2021-2023 and Pacific Approach, 2021-2025.

A policy-based loan of $80 million is proposed to support the government's ongoing reform program to restore longer-term economic growth and fiscal sustainability while meeting urgent development financing needs. A single tranche stand-alone policy-based loan is considered appropriate since the economic recovery is uncertain, and the Cook Islands does not routinely use loans to meet development finance needs because of debt sustainability considerations. An initial drawdown of $40 million in 2021 will meet the Cook Islands' immediate financing needs. Since financing needs will be largely determined by the degree to which a tourism recovery can be sustained, the remaining $40 million will be made available for potential future drawdowns based on pre-defined conditions, through a precautionary financing option (PFO)."

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
